Message from Commander Smalley:

January 2008

Greetings everyone. I hope the past month has been good to you and your dreams are filled with boating thoughts. My past month has been quite eventful. My fourth grandchild was born on January 15, also Martin Luther King's birthday. What a joy and tons of work! Also, Ernie had surgery on January 29, so the commander has been busy in both directions. The new grand babe is fine and Ernie is recuperating very well.

Our January sharing meeting was very well attended. It took place at the gun clubhouse where Don Gladstone is a member. Thanks go to Don and Betty for setting up this location. We had pizza and desserts. Ed Weber and John Kwak shared their pictures of their trip to the Bahamas. Their pictures were projected on a large screen through a projector and laptop. Other members involved in this trip were Tom Ostrofsky and Bill and Peg Enichen. The next share was from Pat and Ernie on their August trip to Alaska. Michele Tarsa also accompanied us on this adventure. Jim Pratt shared his experiences of swimming with the dolphins in Florida. Thanks to all for making the sharing meeting a fun and informative time. Don't forget to take pictures of your adventures and plan to share at next year's meeting.

The month of February is our special visit to the home of Linda and Fred Mangelsdorf on Friday, February 15, 2008. This is a dessert meeting, so plan to bring a dessert to share. We all thank the Mangelsdorf's for sharing their home with us. This has become an annual tradition to which we all look forward. Details and directions can be found elsewhere in "The Foghorn."

Other events to put on your calendar are the Change of Watch on Wednesday, March 19, the annual fundraising auction on Saturday, April 12 and our annual Education Recognition and Awards dinner/meeting on Wednesday, May 21. Details will be forth coming.

The United States Power Squadrons annual meeting is in Dallas, Texas this year, on February 19 – 24. Everyone is encouraged to attend. This commander cannot make the trip this year. The annual meeting in 2009 is in California. Maybe I can make that one.

So, have a great February. Think boating and prepare those to-do lists for getting out on the water. I look forward to seeing you at our next Mid-Hudson Power Squadron meeting.

Commander Pat

The Mid-Hudson Power Squadron Monthly Membership Meeting – “Dessert at Fred & Linda Mangelsdorf’s House” A Yearly Tradition

When: Friday, February 15, 2008 @ 19:00 Where:
Fred & Linda Mangelsdorf’s Home

Directions to Linda and Fred's house

68 High Point Circle
Newburgh, NY 12550
845-561-6392 (home)
845-542-3180 (Fred's cell)
845-728-3260 (Linda's cell)

We live in Newburgh, NY, in the Stony Brook Condominiums. They are on the south side of Route 17-K (or Broadway), just west of Stony Brook (or Quassaick Creek), the boundary between Town of Newburgh and City of Newburgh.

From I-84

Take Exit 7-S, Union Avenue, as if you were headed for the NYS Thruway.
Continue past the Thruway entrance for approx 0.4 miles to Route 17-K.
Turn left; proceed approx 1.1 miles to the right turn into Stony Brook. There are red brick office buildings on both sides of Stony Brook Court as you enter from 17-K.
If you cross Stony Brook, the road narrows from 4-lanes to 2-lanes, and you have gone too far.
Once on Stony Brook Court, see details below.

From downtown Newburgh

Proceed west on Broadway (Route 17-K).
After you pass Dunkin Donuts and Wisner Ave, the road begins to go uphill.
The next traffic light is Fowler Ave. Proceed.
HUB Bank (name may have changed?) will be on your right, followed by Stewarts.
Look for a bridge, followed by the road widening to 4-lanes.
Immediately turn left into Stony Brook.

Once on Stony Brook Court, see details below.

From NYS Thruway

Take Exit 17, Newburgh.
As you leave the toll booth, proceed straight ahead (do not be suckered into taking the sharp right turn which most others will be doing).
The 'straight ahead' option actually takes you into a gentle sweeping turn to the right, to the intersection with Route 17-K (Broadway).
Turn left; proceed approx 0.8 miles to the right turn into Stony Brook. There are red brick office buildings on both sides of Stony Brook Court as you enter from 17-K.
If you cross Stony Brook, the road narrows from 4-lanes to 2-lanes, and you have gone too far.
Once on Stony Brook Court, see details below.

Detail directions in Stony Brook

Proceed in from Rt. 17-K approx 0.1 miles to the brick gatehouse (unmanned).
Turn left just behind the gatehouse onto High Point Circle.
Go up the hill approx 100 feet; make the first right turn.
Proceed approx 0.1 miles; the road makes a left turn; you should make the right turn into our parking area.
At this point you should be looking at a courtyard between the garages; we are on the left in the little courtyard.
Our front door is behind the garage with the number '68' on it.

As a person susceptible to “mal de mer” I thought it was appropriate to pick the January 24th 2008 NautiBender problem. Why did I pick that date?

SEASICKNESS PREVENTION

1. Avoiding alcoholic beverages.
2. Avoiding greasy foods.
3. Avoiding exhaust fumes.
4. Keeping warm and dry.
5. Staying on deck, amidships.
6. Sitting down.
7. Drinking ginger ale.
8. Keeping manually and physically active (steer the boat)
9. Focusing on the horizon
10. Lying down or standing upright.

Which one of the above does not prevent seasickness?

Find the answer elsewhere in The Foghorn.
